

Adult Learners' Week 2010 Regional Workshop

Wednesday 2nd December 2009

Thurrock Adult Community College, Richmond Rd, Grays, Essex, RM17 6DN

Adult Learners' Week is the UK's largest festival of learning and 2010 will be its 19th year! It has successfully engaged with hundreds of thousands of people over the last 18 years. Since 1992 the campaign has provided the opportunity to highlight that learning is not only good for individual health, self-esteem and employability, but that it also transform life.

Adult Learners' Week celebrates the achievements of our most successful learners and uses their remarkable stories to inspire others to give learning a go, whether for pleasure, to catch-up on skills missed out at school or job progression!

You are cordially invited to attend this workshop, supported by Thurrock Learning Partnership, which will focus primarily on: the preparation of good Adult Learners' Week Award Nominations, and; planning for running events during Adult Learners' Week, including collaborative activities.
